

Diverse work environment bingo

A diverse work environment is created by many things coming together. Mark the boxes of the statements that apply to your workplace - the more, the better!

The board has people of different genders

Working hours are flexible

The company's accessibility is described on the website

Those returning from parental leave can rejoin gradually

Food offered at events takes different dietary needs into account

The employer offers paid sick days

Everyone can read work instructions in a language they understand

The rooms necessary for work can be accessed in a wheelchair

The mental health of employees is cared for proactively

Days off for holidays take into account holidays of other cultures

Salary ranges and the promotion system are public

The company has joined the diversity charter

In terms of work equipment, the specific needs of people are taken into account

There is a system for reporting discrimination

The team includes people of different age groups

The company values openness to differences and expresses it clearly

